

By Phat

Contrary to the usual custom at this time of the year of the hunt and peck artists who inflict themselves onto a hapless public by writing columns, I am not going to start this one off by wishing you all a Merry Christmas. . . . At that, though, I hope all your Christmases will be white. . . . I've got a Bing Crosby and a Guy Lombardo of that one and the neighbors have heard them a lot this past week. . . . But good.

SANTA CLAUS could bring the Village one welcome gift. Legible street signs, strategically placed. . . . Received a call to attend a pre-Christmas rally at a local home the other night and started out blithely. . . . But didn't get there until the party was over. . . . Couldn't find it. . . . The lack of adequate street signs was the cause. . . . There is only one to a corner and they are faced the wrong way. . . . You practically have to stop at every corner and get out and look. . . . That's what took all of the time. . . . Seems that two to a corner, one facing one way, the other the opposite way, are really needed. . . . and also an additional sign indicating the number of the block. . . . So, added to benches, siestas and discourteous drivers, you'll probably hear about street signs from now on.

ONCE, when writing a daily column, I had a bright idea to save a lot of work. . . . It was during the time when Hitler was just getting going. . . . So I wrote a line at the top and said that if you were in Germany you'd probably get a column like this. . . . Then I left the rest of the space blank except for the word "censored" in small type about half way down. . . . It was a great idea and that day I had nothing to write. . . . It was suggested to me this morning that I leave the column blank today and just put in the words: "Merry Christmas." . . . I almost fell for that one.

BUT BECAUSE space is limited today and it's the day before Christmas and all through the shop, everyone is yelling for me to stop. . . . I am going to, right here. . . . But before I do, want to say that Peggy Randall, Geraldine Donohue, Mrs. Tom McCormick, Grant Wood, Bern Price, Bill Rashall, Frank Keeney, and me, myself, of the office staff, Oliver B. Jaynes, publisher, Carl Barkow, co-publisher, and all of the boys in the back shop who get The Sun out twice a week, want to wish you THE MERRIEST OF CHRISTMASSES.

Vets to Have Gay Christmas Visit As Amvets' Guests

Eight veterans, seven of whom were wounded in the war just closed and one for whom World War I is still a vivid memory, will spend the Christmas holiday here in Palm Springs over night the guest of several kind-hearted citizens and sponsored by the very youngest service organization in the Village—the AMVETS.

The servicemen who carry deep wounds of the war, were flown down here by Western Air Line on the morning plane.

THE GROUP will be wined and dined by several of the big hotels in the city among which are included the Colonial House, the Desert Inn and the El Morocco. Frank Cutler will take care of two men for the evening in his own home.

Other Villagers who rallied to the assistance of the group with financial donations were: Al Wertheimer, Miss Dorothy Grey, James Hume of the Palm Springs Music company and Ernie Alschuler.

TO SEE that they will have a good time, The Lido, Chi-Chi, The Dunes, Mr. Dee's, The Racquet Club, Tennis Club and other establishments promised an "on the house" treat when these boys started out to see the town under the guidance of Amvet Mickey Wainess, former Wave, who went out and obtained young "escorts" for the seven other servicemen. Bringing the group down here, to begin with, was Amvet Wainess' idea.

Clubmen Sing

Rotarians, Lions
Join in Carols

Those old songs musically executed by both the Rotarians and the Lions club at the Racquet Club yesterday evening are still echoing against the surrounding hills and the rafters of that swanky tennis emporium are still vibrating.

Christmas carols featured the singing and wives and friends helped in this part of the entertainment.

This is the first time that these two Palm Springs organizations have met jointly and there is hope that Christmas caroling may be an annual event.

Indian Land Case Again in Litigation

Interior Department
Asks for Appeal to
U. S. Supreme Court

Litigation over Indian lands in Palm Springs is not yet at an end and the right of Lee Arenas to 94 acres of valuable property here is still not settled.

According to Washington dispatches, further debate over title to the land is in prospect. The Interior department has asked the Department of Justice to take an appeal from the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals land decision to the United States Supreme court.

DECISION of the Appeals court in San Francisco gave Arenas title to 94 acres of valuable lands on the local reservation following years of litigation. The decision set off a series of mistaken stories and cartoons all over the nation setting forth that "Palm Springs had been given back to the Indians."

Leading Village officials saw in the verdict, however, benefit to Palm Springs instead of loss. If the Indians had clear title to their land, it was pointed out, the opportunity to improve the acreage in conformity with the rest of the Village, was bright.

HOWEVER, the Interior Department's action over the weekend, brought the prospect of further litigation to halt, for the present, at least. Arenas' contemplation of 94 acres of land as his own.

Felix S. Cohen, acting solicitor for the Interior Department, said the San Francisco decision was contrary to two other decisions by the same court.

THE ACTION started in Washington today is along the long-held views of the Interior Department that the reservation lands should be held as tribal lands.

Litigation along this line has been continuous for the past 20 years.

Vacation
Schools of Village
Observing Holiday

No more books until January 8. For it's vacation time.

Schools of the Desert School district and Palm Springs high are "dark" these days.

Last Friday afternoon the schools came to a close for two weeks.

It won't be until January 6 that youngsters of the elementary grades and young men and women of the high school go back to their desks.

Prof. L. V. Voss, who says walking is the only way to real health, plans a six-hour marathon Thursday. He's going to walk up and down Palm Canyon, non-stop, for 360 minutes. He'll go a mile each way.

Lost Trio Found Safe In Canyon

Jim Maynard Leads
Police Rescue Party
Into Mountains

Casual Sunday picnic and hike into Tahquitz canyon for three Villagers turned into another "search for a lost party in the mountains" for Policeman Jim Maynard, who is always called to lead the rescue teams.

Starting out on the picnic-hike at approximately 6 a.m. Sunday was Homer Jenkins, 536 Plaza De Amigo, electrical contractor and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Coombs of Cathedral City. With the assistance of Jim Maynard, Chief of Police August Kettmann and Officer Durham Ordway, they returned to the desert at approximately 5 a.m. Monday morning.

FIRST KNOWLEDGE that the hikers were either lost or delayed came to the police station from Mrs. Homer Jenkins at 10 p.m. Sunday. She said that her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Coombs had planned to return long before that hour.

About 15 minutes later Mrs. R. R. Dunlap, called the police to report what she thought was a signal fire, blazing above Tahquitz falls. Within an hour the searching party headed into the canyon.

IT WAS at 3:57 a.m. that Chief Kettmann radioed that the party was out of the mountains and at the police car.

At 1 a.m., it subsequently developed, that the rescue party reached the lost trio. The return trip began shortly after from the 2,000-foot level after they had been given sandwiches and hot coffee.

But Quick!

Kids Go Through
Candy in a Hurry

A second invitation to kiddies for a free candy stick at Mills store wasn't necessary, LeRoy Mills, proprietor and manager, learned today.

Friday through the columns of this newspaper he announced that an anonymous donor had purchased 200 of these candy-canes at his store and left instructions that they be given away free from 11 a.m. until the supply was exhausted.

The children "exhausted" the sweets, but quick.

Village Red Cross "Gives to Yanks"

Palm Springs branch of the American Red Cross has sent a check for $100 and a box of Christmas gifts to the patients at Norco Naval hospital at Corona, officials revealed today.

It was their donation to the "Give to the Yanks Who Gave" campaign.

Santa Claus Greets Village Youngsters

For the seventeenth consecutive year, the Christmas party under the giant tree in front of the Francis Stevens school was a great success with more than 1,000 children in attendance who received at the hands of an air-flying Santa Claus, bags filled with candy, apples, tangerines and other sweet toothsome articles children just love.

Willard Geib, who was in charge of the event for the chamber of commerce, announced that Santa Claus arrived by air on time—the parade up Palm Canyon with Little Bear and six lovely Village girls riding as escort for Santa, swung along the drive at the proper moment and the entire affair was completed on a grand scale.

SPONSORED by the businessmen of the chamber of commerce the Community Christmas tree, found many of the merchants in the Village contributing to the affair. In addition to the names previously published the following merchants also contributed to the Christmas tree fund:

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brett, The Los Compadres, American Legion auxiliary, A. L. Taylor, Lion's

Pseudo Doctor Has Even Police Fooled

If the residents of Mrs. Angela Bodron, night nurse at the Community hospital had not been aroused, John Joseph Anderson, 4583 Ohio street, San Diego, would perhaps still be posing as a great brain surgeon about the Village.

He carried out his act with such fine perfection, that the night clerk at the Desert Inn, nurse Bodron, and arresting police were calling Anderson "doctor" with respect in their voices, even after he admitted that it was all a great big joke.

THE STORY had its beginning with the arrival of the Southern Pacific Argonaut at the Palm Springs station and the debarking there from of "doctor" John Joseph Anderson.

Right then and there, according to the report of Merlin Chase, Tanner bus driver, his passenger seemed to be debating with himself, in stage whispers, whether he should call "Katy" on the telephone and announce his arrival or go on down to the Desert Inn. But inasmuch as it was more or less of a private "conversation" the driver thought it wise to keep his nose out of the argument. This, however, didn't please Anderson and he "invited" the bus driver into the debate.

OF COURSE you know Katy, don't you," Anderson asked the driver. "No, I'm sorry but I don't," See PSEUDO DOCTOR Page 6

Visitor Gives Village Police Busy Week-End

Joseph Youngblood came to town last weekend and in a very few hours gave local police a rough time, so they said. But he wound up with nothing more than a charge of drunkenness and a charge of disturbing the peace. He's out on bail on those two charges now.

In the meantime, however, police and firemen say he:

- 1—Figured in two-car accident.
- 2—Accidentally started a fire in a hotel room.
- 3—Was the center of a tavern brawl.

IT WAS THAT LAST event that finally entangled him in the snarls of the law.

The first time he came to the attention of the police was around 11:30 Friday night when the automobile he was driving crashed into a parked car on South Palm Canyon drive, so the police blotter records.

Squad cars went to the scene and pulled Youngblood from his wrecked car. He was taken to the police station where a sobriety test proved negative and he was released.

NEXT, at 3:30 a.m., Saturday morning firemen were called to a local hotel where a room was ablaze. Firemen put out the blaze which scorched walls and furniture and practically consumed a pair of pants. Firemen rescued enough of the trousers to salvage a wallet which proved they were the property of Youngblood. A search failed to find him until it was discovered the next morning that he had gone into an adjoining room to sleep, according to the police record.

But after escaping with only a wrecked car and a charred pair of pants on the debit side, he really got into trouble.

A LOCAL TAVERN called police to come to quell a disturbance.

That was the third time Youngblood came into public attention. For Officer Paul Miller arrested him as being the center of the disturbance. This time he was booked on a charge of intoxication.

He posted bail for his appearance before Judge E. E. Therieue later and is understood to have gone back to El Centro where he is employed as a cook at a hotel.

City Leases Downtown Property

Room for 200 Cars
On Lot Near Heart
Of Business Area

Villagers will have a place to park their automobiles from now on and for an indefinite period of time.

This was assured when the city council in special session yesterday afternoon approved a plan presented by Councilman Armand Turonnet to lease the property owned by Mrs. Lucy Pete, at the corner of Andreas road and Indian avenue.

THIS PLOT, formerly had several stores standing upon it until a fire destroyed them. William E. Alworth, city manager, estimated that approximately 200 automobiles could be handled on this space when completed and ready for operation.

In the meantime, the city fathers said any Villager who wants to park his car on the premises can, free of charge.

WHEN A FENCE is erected to enclose the area, and an operator appointed under a lease-management agreement similar to that in the case of the airport, a fee will be charged.

Armand Turonnet declared that in his opinion if the city broke even on the operation of the parking lot it would be more than satisfied.

Aviatrix Is Given Lease on City Port

Mrs. Mary Nelson, 28, owner of a ranch near Indio, Wasp for two years in World War II, and close friend of Jacqueline Cochran, foremost women flier, was yesterday the winner over many former high ranking officers of the army and navy, in obtaining the lease-management agreement with the city of Palm Springs in the operation of the old Army air base.

Under the terms of the lease Mrs. Nelson will enter into a definite nine-month agreement with the city on the operation of the field with a stipulated fee of $2,700 for the period. She is to pay $300 on the signing of the agreement which pays the first month's rent and $300 for each consecutive month. At the end of that time a new lease will be negotiated.

TERMS of the written lease management-agreement was read to the five members of the city council by William E. Alworth and all preliminary points of the agreement were endorsed by a record vote of council members yesterday afternoon.

Among other things it provided for the posting of a $20,000 performance and safety bond by Mrs. Nelson; that she shall have a corporation managing the airport and she asked that she be allowed to call it the Palm Springs Airport corporation. This took a special vote on the part of the council and was approved.

AS IT STANDS Mrs. Nelson will walk in and take over the city's municipal airport for nine months at least, with an initial See PORT LEASE Page 7

Ground Broken for Youth Center at Ceremonies

Work is Under Way
On Project Today
On Bellardo Road

The site of the new Youth Center on Bellardo road was the scene of much activity today following ground-breaking ceremonies last Friday afternoon. Material for the new structure was on the ground and Contractor Charles Chamberlin was preparing to proceed as rapidly as possible.

Under direction of Mrs. Caroline Hicks, shovels were thrust into the ground at 1 p.m. Friday while flash bulbs exploded. On the Youth Center committee of the Welfare and Friendly Aid association with Mr. Hicks are Mrs. Barbara Coffman, Mrs. Precilla Chaffey and Mrs. Norma Oliver.

City officials also were present for the ceremony and members of the Palm Springs high school Youth Center committee of which Cherie Mashburn is chairman.

Everybody took a turn at leaning on the shovels which turned the first dirt.

A short circuit in the wiring in an automobile belonging to Kenneth Ayer called out the fire department yesterday. The blaze occurred at Indian avenue and Amado road. Damage was nominal.

AT LONG LAST—First shovels of dirt for the new Youth Center, sponsored by the Youth Center committee of the Welfare and friendly Aid association of which Mrs. Harold Hicks is chairman, were turned last Friday afternoon. CHRISTMAS—It's a tree, all right, even if it's only a hall tree—but continuing a custom of the past five years, Earle C. Anthony of KFI fame, this year again decorated the "tree" at Ralph Tharp's barber shop, trimming it up with bubble lights to go with the rest of the Christmas trimmings. The "tree" at the right is the only one of its kind in the Village. (Frank Partridge Photo.)Desert Museum Notes*MONUMENT VALLEY FILM.

This Saturday night, December 28, at 8 p.m. (Sun Time) in the El Paseo Theatre, colored motion pictures of the famous Western photographer, Jack Breed, will be unreel. These pictures show beautiful Monument Valley in all its magnificent color, including many scenes taken this last summer with the museum director, Lloyd Mason Smith. Mr. Breed has had several articles published in the National Geographic, with three more slated for early appearance. His pictures appear regularly in the magazine, Arizona Highways, and in the December issue there were no less than seven plates which bore the Breed name. Mr. Breed, who was recently married, lives with his wife in Tucson, when they aren't out on a photographic trip.

DUNES AND CACTI TRIP. The Devil's Cactus Garden and the Sand Dune north of the Village will be the goal of the Museum-conducted field trip this Saturday, December 28. This will be a half-day trip, and there will be very little walking involved. Meet in front of the museum at 12:30; return to the museum at 1:30. The "Cactus Garden" area en route to Morongo Valley, the group will see at close range the famous Cholla or Jumping Cactus, as well as the Barrel Cactus. Then the group will continue toward Indio to the Sand Dune, parking by the highway and walking the intervening few yards to see the dune close by.DESERT VICTORY TO BE SHOWN. The war movie for Friday, December 27, will be the famous English film "Desert Victory," depicting Rommel's advance and retreat across the North African deserts. 8 p.m., at the El Paseo Theatre.

CHUCKAWALLA AND VERDIN

Among the new acquisitions to the Museum's "zoo" last week was a baby chuckawalla, captured at Dry Falls by young Bruce Gray of Desert Hot Springs. A Verdin nest in a Tamarisk branch, found near Valerie Jean's, was collected by Mr. 'Hap' Ward and donated to the Museum's collection of desert bird nests.

On the field-trip to Hidden Springs last Saturday, another live tarantula was brought back. Three dead tarantulas were noted in Grotto Canyon, cause of death unknown. Evidently these large spiders remain active all through the winter, at least in desert areas.

GOLDWATER SHOWS FILMS.

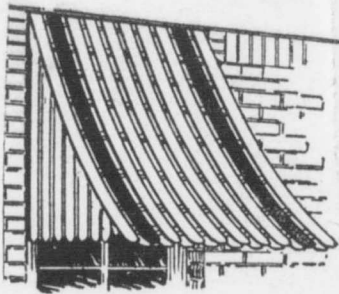

Accompanied by his eldest son, Mr. Barry Goldwater flew out from Phoenix last Saturday to talk and show his famous colored movies of the trip he made with the Norman Nevill's Expedition down the Green River to the Colorado, and then on down the Colorado River through the Grand Canyon to Lake Mead. Highlights of the spectacular films included pictures of the Crossing of the Fathers, where the early Mormons actually cut steps in the rock to get their wagons across the river. Another unusual sequence was of a flash-flood coming down Bridge Canyon, near Rainbow Natural Bridge, showing a six-foot wall of water speeding down the otherwise dry river bed. Mr. Goldwater, who is half owner of the famous Rainbow Lodge, gateway to Rainbow Bridge, also owns one of the largest department stores in Phoenix. He flew back to that city on Sunday, but promised to return in a few weeks to show more thrilling color movies. We hope it will be soon.

Community Hospital Notes

This past week has been a busy one for the different committees of the hospital board.

The outstanding meeting was the one that the executive committee held Wednesday afternoon, when they met with Dr.
Phillip Gilman and R. J. Stull, who are with the bureau of hospital surveys, California department of public health. Their talk of the survey being made of all hospital facilities in the state, was very interesting and most enlightening.

These two gentlemen met with the medical staff of the hospital, that same evening and spoke in the same vein.

THE NICEST THING happened
Friday, when the Palm Springs
Woman's Club brought the Christmas tree, which they had donated, and Mrs. Ralph Shelley, Mrs. Florence Glass and Mrs. and Mrs. Frances Mannington decorated it. It looks perfectly beautiful in the corridor. The ambulatory patients, and those leaving and entering the hospital all had a nice word to say about it.

This week the patients at the hospital were: medical patients—
Otto Grunwood, James Shull,
Chas. H. Austin, Rev. B. Weath-
erall, Mrs. Phyllis M. Champion, Mrs. Fannie Gholston, Mrs. Helen
Fisher, Mrs. Delores Schout, Mrs.
Glenn Hanson, Mrs. Flora Lee,
Mrs. Isabelle Hendon, Mrs. Clara
Obeler, Mrs. D. Ossman, Mrs.
Margaret Wilson, Mrs. Ida G.
Mullen, Baby Michael Haxton.

Surgical patients — Mrs. Eva

Zouganiles, Mrs. Lula Christoff.
Obstetrical patients — Mrs. Evelyn Green, baby girl.

The Junior Red Cross was busy again and made some lovely little tray cards with Christmas verses and figures. We are indeed fortunate to have the different groups in Palm Springs so thoughtful of our patients and interested in the hospital.

Nola Birthplace Of Church Bells

The use of church bells is said to have been inaugurated during the fifth century by Bishop Palinius of Nola, in Campania.

Although the derivation is doubted by some authorities, it appears that the Latin word for bell — campanula — was derived from the bishop's town, Nola, and district, Campania.

When the Infant Jesus Selected His Playmate

According to various legends, the Holy Family travels about on Christmas Eve. Long ago—in England—sick babies were carried to the threshold at midnight. If the child recovered, it had been healed by the passing Christ; if the baby died, the Holy Child had chosen the infant to be His playmate in heaven.

"O' Dear Little Children" and
"See, Amid the Winter's Snow", traditional melodies from the St.
Gregory Hymnal. These two songs will again be followed by
"The Infant Jesus", by Pietro A.
Yon and "Silent Night", by F.
Gruber, arranged by N. A. Mon-
tani.

At 1 a.m. Father O'Conner will celebrate the High Mass with the choir singing the Mass in "F" by W. A. Leonard. At the close of the Mass the choir will repeat their opening son of "O, Dear Little Children."

Twenty-four members compose the choir including director, Mrs.
Rashall and organist, Mrs. Kett-mann. Soloists during the Mass will be Tani Boyle, Nancy Bradley, Rafaela Marmolejo, and Ralph Remy. Featured in duets will be Jean Pignieri, Eleanor Chumura, John B. Goyette and Wilmer Wasserman; Larry Sitter and Ralph Remy. At the Offertory Carmen Martinez and Hortencia Ortega will sing Adesta, Fideles, a traditional melody. They will be assisted by the choir. During the Communion
Ralph Remy will sing Ave Maria, by Del Campiglio, and the chorus by the choir. The remainder of the Communion Mrs. Kett-mann will play a medley of Christmas carols.

MEMBERS of the choir are:

Great Throng Turns Out to Attend Court of Honor Staged by Boy Scout Troops of Village at El Paseo Theater

Palm Springs' Boy Scout District Court of Honor, held in the El Paseo Council Chamber Thursday night and witnessed by approximately 70 parents and their friends saw the court open with a thirty second period of silence in memory of Cecil H. Isenagie, who dropped dead on the night of December 12.

Members composing the court included Lloyd Simon, Harry Harper, Carl Lykken, Reg Jones, Dave Henderson, Scout Master Scott Thompson, William Kenny, Riverside, field executive for the county council.

THREE FIRST and three second class badges were awarded scouts and a number of others received merit badges. As the second and first class badges were awarded, William Kenny explained to the audience about the requirements these scouts have to meet in order to win these badges.

After the awards were completed demonstrations in some phases of scouting lore took place. The boys gave a review of first aid to the injured and compass work. Demonstrations in signaling then took the spot light. A race against time in spelling out the sentence: "What is your name" was won by Scott Thompson, who performed in Indian sign language for a total of four seconds. The same sentence was spelled out in the deaf and dumb language, in the International Morse code by flag, flashlight and by the use of a telegraph key.

MRS. KENNY then showed an interesting colored motion picture with sound of desert flowers and trees. The usual closing ceremony by the troop was observed.

Following is a list of the Scouts who won honors and the awards: Barry DeVorzan, advanced to second class; Marvin C. Hale, to second class; Charles Bond, advanced to first class and received a merit badge for personal health; Rolin Jones, first class; Edward Griffing to first class; Roland S. French, personal health and reading; William Vaysabel, merits in personal health and reading and public speaking and safety; Robert A. Hillery, public speaking and machinery; Marshal Thompson, reading, safety and business; Bill Cary, safety; Ronald S. French, public speaking and pigeon raising, and Robert Mennel, advanced to second class.

Norco Patients Remembered Here

Thanks to a few Villagers and the personal efforts of Jerry Sanborn, commander of the Owen Coffman Post of the American Legion, patients at the Norco Naval Hospital will have reason to remember Palm Springs this Christmas.

Cartons of cigarettes and cash were deposited at the Chamber of Commerce for the hospitalized sailors.

Christmas Party Staged by Local Chapter of P.E.O.

Chapter KV, P.E.O., entertained with a Christmas party at the McClure home on Via Altamira, last week. Mrs. John Robertson Macartney and Mrs. L. B. Jackson, co-hostesses, played Santa Claus for 31 members and guests. Decorations and refreshments carried out the Christmas motif. A Christmas tree laden with interesting packages stood on the sun porch.

Unaffiliated P.E.O. guests were: Mrs. Ethel R. Hillgren, and Miss Jo Ann Hillgren, Chapter GD, Glendale. Miss Hillgren is a local high school teacher. Mrs. Kate Henderson, Chapter HP, Huntington Park; Mrs. Sarah Barnum, Chapter GA, Los Angeles; Mrs. Ruth Elliott, Chapter G, Fort Collins, Colorado; Mrs. Frances Peterson, Chapter GK, Pocatello, Idaho.

HOLLY LASH VISEL, Chapter KV's chairman of music, graciously introduced the artists who rendered the beautiful program. Georgia B. Caldwell Freeman, one of Chapter KV's very talented artists, both with the brush and with the bow, entertained her audience with two violin numbers: "Les Adieux" by Bernard Hamblen, and "Sarabande" by Carl Bohm. Mrs. William Lux, pianist, accompanied Mrs. Freeman. "Polichinelle" by Rachmaninoff and "May Night" by Selim Palmgren, were beautifully rendered piano solos by Mrs. William Lux. Mrs. Roger Williams charmed the group with her harp solos: "Berceuse" by Goddard, "Minstrel's Adieu to his Native Land" by Thomas, "Turkey in the Straw", arrangements by D'Esta Williams.

THE HARP AND PIANO blended beautifully in "Dawn", "Gondoliers" by Nevin, and a "Medley of Christmas Songs" arranged by the artists—Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Lux.

Santa Claus with his sleigh bells came and delivered packages from the Christmas tree to each one present amidst much laughter and glee.

Smash the Pinata

South of Border

Smashing the Pinata is a red-letter feature of Mexican Christmas festivities.

An earthen jar is filled with nuts, candies and small gifts. Elaborately disguised and decorated with tissue paper, etc., it often represents a doll's face or an entire figure—perhaps a bull fighter.

Children of the household, blindfolded and armed with a club, are each given three chances to break the Pinata. Inasmuch as the basic earthen jar has been selected because of its fragility, it shatters easily, releasing a shower of goodies and trinkets and causing everyone in the party to scramble for a share.

"I was a Boy Scout until I was 16. I then became a girl scout.

Then there was the bright lad who, when his mother began to learn to drive, nicknamed her "Oh Ma, the dent maker."

TACHEVAH VISTA'S first home, which will soon be under construction, is seen here, as sketched by Architect H. Hudson Benedict. The home, a lovely modern one, is long and low, with many attractions, that make for desert living at its best. The latest ideas, materials, and comfort-making innovations will help to make of the new structure an outstanding home. Phil Yankwich is the owner and developer of Tachevah Vista, one of Palm Springs' newest subdivisions.

Bill Hillery Comments on Cathedral City

By W. R. HILLERY

Cathedral City Woman's Club in Session at La Paz

The Cathedral City Woman's Club held its Christmas luncheon at the La Paz Guest Ranch, Dec. 18, at which a report of the bazaar was given by Mrs. Lucy Abels, president. She said that with only three weeks to make things for the bazaar the women had turned out so much work that over $300 was taken in by that section alone. She thanked Mrs. Ted Mance, chairman of the sewing section, for all the aprons and work she had done and presented her with a basket of dates. The entire amount raised was over $700 gross.

Mrs. Abels also thanked the three representatives from the Palo Verde Sport Shop, Kathryn's Dress Shop and Scott's Sportswear for their splendid cooperation in putting on the three fashion shows and expressed the hope that this would be an annual affair.

The next luncheon will be held December 31, and will be at the Plantation in Palm Springs. Mrs. Marguerite Hillery and Mrs. Edna Cobb will be hostesses. Reservations must be made in advance with either of the chairmen.

"Sez I"

By MARY WOLSETH

Sez Emil Greener, chairman of the Fire Prevention committee for the Chamber of Commerce: "If we get a good fire hall here in the next two years with quarters for the fire chief above we will be sure to keep the state forestry engine and department here. I propose that we all get together and build that hall big enough for two engines, with a good cement floor and a large room above with a kitchen where dinners could be given and meetings held until it is divided into a firemen's recreation hall and chief's living quarters.

I propose that we use it as a Town Hall until we can build a new Town Hall and Library on the west side of the two lots. The Town Hall we have isn't worth spending any more money on. It will always be a patched up job."

SEZ I: This community has outgrown the present Town Hall. If the Woman's Club can raise over six hundred dollars after three weeks work they should be able to double this next year. The Cactus Jumpers' Jamboree brings in close to two thousand dollars. That firehall can be raised with bonds and the efforts of the community as a whole. We've jumped the hardest hurdle—getting the state to put an engine here instead of the other places which wanted it—Desert Hot Springs even offered to build the firehall and give the chief living quarters. Rancho Mirage, Palm Village and Palm Desert all want it there. And we will have to show the State that we want it here badly enough to work for it. How about a good lively Firemen's Auxiliary, a Firemen's Ball, and devoting a large part of the Jamboree funds to the Firehall?

The Post and Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars gave a Christmas dinner for over 100 persons at the Town Hall last Saturday night. Six turkeys were roasted by the ladies. Mrs. Mabel Bryant, Gold Star mother, was responsible for the salads. Miss Lillian Hale, junior vice-president, took charge of the arrangements for Cathedral City. Many members are from Palm Springs, including the president, Mrs. McEvoy.

Carolers Will Be Heard Tonight

A truckload of carolers will visit a score of homes, the hospital and trailer courts tonight. They leave the church at 7 o'clock. The truck was donated by Builders Supply company.

Hospitality at the close of the itinerary about the Village will be extended to the young people by J. R. Fouch at La Paz Guest Ranch.

KCMJ Staff in Yuletide Party

That was quite a party at the Radioasis Friday night.

It was the first annual Christmas party for members of the KCMJ staff and all had a wonderful time.

Dick Joy and Don McBlain, owners of the station, were given a substantial Christmas gift in a sheaf of new contracts by the staff.

Enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Joy, Mr. and Mrs.

Don McBain, Mr. and Mrs. George Irwin, Clint Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ehresman, Roland Valle, Miss Doris St. George, Sheldon Bren, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Donahue, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones, Mr. and Mrs. John Clowes, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Maufang, and Bob Schnebley.

The Mini-Max batteries used today in personal camera-sized radios are identical with the batteries which powered the Navy's famed Sonobuoy for detecting submarines during the war.

Doing the Village

with
Moya Henderson

Tis the night before Christmas and what do you know, from beating Tom and Jerry batter many a Villager is now in a glow. We said beating and not eating. And we could add—from last minute shopping we've hit a new low. But in spite of the hectic last minute rush the true Christmas spirit shines through as will be proved tonight at the crowds will gather to worship and to remember the real reason why Christmas is celebrated the world over. Services at the Episcopal church will be in at eleven o'clock and the excellent choir, under the direction of Alex Hammond, will be featured. At the Catholic church midnight mass will be celebrated at 12:00 o'clock standard time and Mrs. Bill Rashall has had many a busy night these past two weeks preparing the choir she directs to sing at the services.

Not only did Santa Claus come to town Friday to thrill the little folks but the older boys and girls got a thrill too when the ground breaking ceremony took place on Belardo road for the new youth center they've been dreaming about for so long.

ON HAND to witness the ceremony were Mesdames Frank Purcell, Harold Hicks, James Oliver, Fay Brainard, Lauritz Hansen, Charles Burket and Charles Henderson, all members of the Welfare and Friendly Aid association who set about making this dream of the teen-agers a realization a long time ago and they must have been mighty proud to witness the first shovels flying.

Mrs. Nettie Kalback is very surprised to find herself spending Christmas in the San Bernardino hospital instead of in San Francisco as planned. She and her husband left the Village Saturday to attend a dinner in San Bernardino and Mrs. Kalback was taken ill in the car on the way. Arriving at the hotel her in the hospital minus an appendix before she knew what had happened to her. We're all glad to hear she is doing so nicely and should be up for New Years celebrations anyway.

NEIL WEATHERALL arrived from San Diego on Monday to spend the holidays with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Bertram Weatherall. Although Dr. Weatherall is still confined to the Community hospital we hope his stay there will be short and he'll be able to be with his family soon.

The Homer Fern's started their Christmas celebration early by holding open house Sunday evening. Homer was kept busy filling mugs (cups we mean, not people) with his famous Tom and Jerry's. The Fern's left for San Diego today to spend Christmas with their daughter. On Sunday also, Virginia and Kenny Paul invited in some guests for a bit of pre-Christmas cheer. Entertainment of the evening was provided by Mr. Roberts who showed his movies of past Circus weeks and some Mickey Mouse cartoons that were twenty-five years old.

NEVER TOO BUSY to find time to ride, the Los Compadres held their monthly breakfast ride Sunday morning at the experimental station near the mouth of Palm Canyon. Breakfasting in the same area were a large group of riders from Smoke Tree Ranch with Jack Boyer along to provide the wherewithal for delicious dining.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Oertel were host and hostess to the high school faculty at a dinner party on Friday evening at their home. The evening ended with much merriment as each guest drew a prize from a grab bag and the holders of lucky numbers selected from a group of lovely door prizes. Mrs. Hammond met with a gala of laughter as she drew her husbands' number out of the hat for the booby prize.

Then there was the bright lad who, when his mother began to learn to drive, nicknamed her "Oh Ma, the dent maker."

Doctor: The best thing for you to do is to give up drinking and smoking, get up early every morning and go to bed early every night.
Patient: Somehow, Doctor, I don't deserve the best. What's second best?

The cockroach, a voracious beast,
Eats everything from yeggs to yeast;
They're belly-full and gay as satyrs
Till banquets with exterminators. —Jester.

The ant's a stupid little thing,
He works his tail off in the spring.
The grasshopper, whose sloth is native,
Is winter warm and procreative.

At social whirl and giddy pace
The bed-bug makes a dour face,
Because he's in an awful plight
If people don't come home at night.

MORE ABOUT . . .

Pseudo Doctor . . .

was the bus driver's reply, who was wishing at that particular moment that all trains would come in during the daylight hours and not during the dead of the night.

"Katy," Anderson explained, was none other than Katherine Hepburn and at last he finally decided to go on to the Desert Inn, for fear of disturbing the motion picture actress.

AT THE DESERT INN, without so much as a glance in the direction of the desk clerk Anderson officially picked up the telephone and called for the Community hospital. So that the night clerk would hear his conversation, he told Nurse Bodron on the other end of the line that he had rushed to Palm Springs to operate on the brain of a nine-year-old child and that he was the associate of a doctor Bowman, famed brain surgeon of Los Angeles.

Anderson, who gave his name as Dr. John C. Franks in talking to the nurse, insisted that he was coming right down to the hospital in a cab and inspect the facilities of the operating room. Before doing so, however, he registered at the hotel.

At 3:20 a.m. the police received a telephone call from Nurse Bodron, reporting that a "Doctor" Frank was in the operating room, looking through the cabinets and she feared he was not a doctor but a person looking for narcotics.

IN NOTHING FLAT officers Dale Thompson and Alva Dawson were standing behind Anderson, alias "Doctor" Frank, and insisting that he go with them to the Desert Inn, where he said his identification papers were in his room.

Within a block of the Inn, Anderson turned to the police and confessed that he was not a doctor but in reality a cook.

"Well now, Doctor," officer Thompson was reported to have said, "we might just as well turn around and go to the police station, and forget all that stuff about operations and brains, don't you think so, Officer Dawson?"

AFTER ANDERSON had confessed, police said, that as a boy of ten he had been under observation at the Sonoma State Hospital, had been arrested three months ago in Los Angeles for impersonating a famous banker but released when the latter refused to prosecute. Officer Thompson, puzzled, said:

"Darned if I didn't catch myself calling him doctor throughout the period of questioning and even when I invited him to stay for a spell and showed him our finest accommodations, I said 'I hope you'll be comfortable, doctor.'"

Brought before Judge Eugene E. Theriault Monday morning Anderson, charged with vagran-

Menace to Peace of Nation Told by Speaker at Clubs

Dr. John R. Lechner, executive director of the American Educational League, spoke before the Rotary and Lions clubs last week on the menace to the American form of government.

"During the next two years the powerful radical element in America under the able direction of Communist strategists will make every effort to impair the economy of this nation," he said. "That will be their answer to their defeat at the polls at the last general election."

DISRUPTION of many basic industries is their aim, he continued. "The general strike in Oakland, during which only the Daily Worker, a Communist paper, was allowed to be published, was given a 30-day suspended sentence with the proviso that he go back to his home in San Diego."

lished and the proposed general strike in Los Angeles, are an example. They are designed to demonstrate the paralyzing power in the hands of labor leaders of the left wing faction."

American labor, he said, must look to a general house-cleaning in order to escape the yoke of red leadership which openly threatens the security of free enterprise.

HIGHEST STANDARDS of living are enjoyed by the American worker and these standards face peril.

"The outlook for this nation is amazing," Dr. Lechner said. He cited the various fields broadening the horizon and then added: "In order to insure the development of this nation we must restore peace immediately on the industrial front."

"The Wagner Act must give way to a new act in which equal responsibility for fulfillment of contracts must be placed on labor and management."

New laminated plastic fish poles, unaffected by mildew or salt water, are lighter than wood and are said to have four times the strength of steel.

After the contract was approved Mrs. Nelson, in an interview, declared that the corporation which will take over the operation of the old army air base has long been in operation but what its name would be she did not tell. However, she said the new name would be the Palm Springs Air Field corporation.

SHE SAID that she does not intend to operate the field herself and instead plans to hire a capable airport manager.

Mrs. Nelson served for two years with the Wasps during the war she admitted under questioning and trained army pilots in the operation of the B-25 medium bomber that General Doolittle used in the first bombing of Japan by American aircraft.

ENTERTAINERS—Now at the La Quinta hotel, Jules and Webb, well known local entertainers are attracting much attention these days. They are shown above.

Archie Selwyn Back in Village For New Season

Archie Selwyn, perennial Villager who commutes between Palm Springs, Hollywood and New York City's Broadway, the scene of all his theatrical triumphs, is back again. With him this time, and staying at the Colonial House, is Michael Myerberg, Broadway producer.

Selwyn who has known the stage and most of its greatest performers since the turn of the century, is presently engaged in writing his memoirs.

ALSO making plans to enjoy the Christmas and New Year's holiday at the swank Colonial House were guests hailing from East, West, North and South. Bill Davis, manager of the hotel announced there was every indication that a good crowd would be in the dining room to enjoy an old-fashioned Christmas dinner and the dancing and entertainment New Year's eve.

Guests from New York City are: J. Goldman, Mrs. R. Silver and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Sinkman, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kahn, Herman Herzog, Mr. and Mrs. William Dodd, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Robinson, Sonny Koret. From Chicago for a second time came Colonel John Arvey. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fernberg arrived from Cleveland and Mrs. Ruben Lipsky from Philadelphia.

Cathedral City

By W. R. HILLERY

PERSONALS

Mrs. Edith Colglazier celebrated her birthday Dec. 19 by decorating the Christmas tree. Many friends sent cards and presents and the Womans' club sent a jar of rose buds.

Paul Harris, founder of the Rotary club, whose home is in Chicago, writes every year to Desert Lodge to inquire when the dining room is opening again in order that he and Jean, his wife, may come back and take an interest in the civic growth of this small community. He writes on Dec. 14: "What has Cathedral City to offer this year? We enjoyed our season with you very much."

It will be remembered that Paul planted our first palm tree on the highway and thereby was the means of starting the park development Mr. Kyle has carried forward so faithfully.

Some Christmas plans which are being made by Cathedralites and may be interesting to the rest of us are: Mr. and Mrs. John Abels expect to spend the holidays with their daughter and son in La Jolla. Arthur Lyman of the Palo Verde Sport Shop left Friday to spend Christmas with his parents in Minneapolis. He is driving back alone but expects to bring friends back with him. Mr. and Mrs. Ken White who are living in the Kuhlman House for a few months, are expecting their two daughters and their husbands to join them for Christmas. Mrs. Jean Douglas from Oakland and Mrs. Charlotte Challman from Salem, Oregon.

Bob Camp and Harold Crawford donated their electrical services and wired the Coachella Valley Pistol and Rifle Range for night shooting which is to be held Tuesday and Thursday nights. It will be under the capable management of Harry H. Mann, prominent West coast marksman. Next Sunday will be the match between the ten best that Santa Ana Pistol and Rifle club has to offer against the C. V. Pistol and Rifle club.

We hear that the Woman's club appreciated the interest shown in their bazaar and doll show by Robert Dillon, our supervisor from Riverside, and when he said he would like to own one of the dolls they sent him a Mexican doll for a Christmas present with the hope that it would remind him of the needs of this little village and speed paved streets and flood control.

Paul Clark is recovering from flu and bronchitis and now has a flourishing appetite for that Christmas turkey which is to be shared by ten guests, chief among them being Mrs. Clark's son by a former marriage, Ensign Calvin Brown who arrived from Richmond, Va. and the U.S.S. Midway.

Col. G. P. Murrell, retired Marine corps officer who is staying at Sunhaven Court for the winter, has many hair-raising stories to tell of his experiences in the South Pacific.

Nancy Eubanks, Girl Scout, won the first prize for selling the most tickets for the bazaar. She sold 39. Ann Stearn won second prize with 21 tickets. The prizes were two little lady figurines of painted china.

We never realized how many pretty girls we had in Cathedral until we saw them modelling in the fashion show. Ahmoy and Nell of the Date Shop, Betty Owen, Mrs. Esther Renwick, Eva Mhoon, Patsy Ruth Sanders, Shirley Smedley, Francine Melrose, Zelma Thompson, Kay Laseley, Angie Whitlock and several others whose names this reporter failed to secure, decorated and were decorated by the spiffy clothes they wore.

Twenty prizes were won at the doll show when Raymond Hatton acted as the auctioneer. Angie Whitlock helped him with the prizes and her husband Art pleased the assembly when he acted as M. C. for the evening, using the loud speaker like an old hand. The loud speaker and music, by the way, were with the courtesy of Carroll Waller, himself no amateur with the mike.

The Community church held a delightful Christmas party last Sunday night at the Town Hall. Mrs. Wenger, superintendent of the Sunday school and her able teachers were responsible for the program.

James Ramsay, able cabinet maker, donated his services in making a large bulletin board for the Cobb fence. It is in the process of being painted by Jack Maddox and Art Whitlock and this time it's large enough to be seen across the street.

Letters to the Editor

YES, IT'S ABOUT BENCHES

Dear Phat: I feel as if I know you, as I enjoy reading your column in each issue of the Desert Sun.

I spent a month in the Village in March, 1945, and five weeks this past April and May. I wish you would keep after the City Fathers and see if they won't do something about putting back those benches. I think I got about as much pleasure sitting on a bench in the sun as anything I did while there, and I hope to return again this year.

I know there are many other places to sit in the sun, but just think what you are missing if you can't see the sights on Palm Canyon drive.

C. A. Bure.

SHE WANTS A COLLEGE

Dear Phat—I'm still a constant reader of your column and have enjoyed Mrs. G.'s writings immensely.

I've no insults to offer but how about a plug for reconverting the deserted army buildings into a "university"?

There was a dandy editorial written by Ralph Woodward of the high school for a college which you printed some time ago.

I know I am among many who would like to complete a college education—and how!

Here's hoping you sandwich a plug for a college between benches and grapes.

Tess Meyer.

Christmas in lands of the palm tree
and vine,
Christmas where snow peaks stand
solemn and white,
Christmas where corn fields lie sunny
and bright,
Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas
tonight.

Then let every heart keep its Christ-

Jam Sessions at Pago Pago Draw Large Throngs

Want to have jam session fun? If so, the Pago Pago is the place on Sunday afternoons. Last Sunday saw a merry throng gathered for the music session, with musicians from several of the town's outstanding night spots joining in the doings.

Popular Bob Laine, whose piano wizardry is well known in the Village, took over the piano for this week's session, with Bill Cooper of the Palm House, Charles Guenaro of the Pago Pago and Charles Cota of the Chi-Chi covering the basses. The drums were ably handled by Blinkey Garner, and the tenor sax by Jack Henderson both of the Palm House, the Pago Pago's Manny Matos was in charge of the trumpet. Dancers Ruth Lene and Pat Magill, who have proved to be such a success at the Palm House, both as exhibition dancers and instructors, added their bit to the merry afternoon.

In the group of onlookers enjoying the show were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hudson who were here from Los Angeles, Don Swan of Cugat's band, Harold Brooks, Jack Wilson and many others.

The Pago's Fiesta Night every Monday is proving equally as popular as their jam session. Nylons and bottles of champagne have been received each week by those catching the prize balloons. Among those there this week were George Jessel, Mike Romanoff, Darryl Zanuck, Ken Murray and John Stahl, Jr.

Doctor: The best thing for you to do is to give up drinking and smoking, get up early every morning and go to bed early every night.

Patient: Somehow, Doctor, I don't deserve the best. What's second best?

It's the day before Christmas and all through the town, Villagers are waiting for Santa to come down.

As a result, social activities slowed down slightly for this week will be mostly family affairs. Still, there was plenty doing about the Village.

Next week, the week of the arrival of the New Year, will see plenty of activity, however.

THE HOLIDAYS called Mrs. Ona Brown of 285 Palo Verde, to Beverly Hills Saturday and she will be a guest of friends there at many merry parties until January 2, when she plans to return to the Village.

In Beverly Hills she will be the guest of Mercedes Withers, well known Palm Springs winter resident.

WINTER in Palm Springs is in full swing with many guests at the Del Tahquitz hotel down for the holidays. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. William Arlen with their slogan of "Ride 'em, cow-boy"; Miss Helen Fields of Los Angeles; Dr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Singer and daughter, who have been enjoying swimming in the pool and horseback riding; Mr. and Mrs. Nat Malenick, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Lew Sumpster, of Salt Lake City; Emil Lindblack, of Seattle, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. A. N. King, of Los Angeles and daughter.

Also at the Del Tahquitz, Harry Moss of Vallejo is entertaining his newly married son and daughter-in-law.

IN TOWN for a brief stay after a month in Los Angeles on business affairs and social events were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Belding last week-end.

They returned to Los Angeles Saturday to be guests of the Arthur Trosts at a week-end party. With them to Los Angeles went Mr. and Mrs. William B. Malouf and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davies. The Trosts are well known winter residents here.

They plan to be back here tonight for the holiday week in which many merry parties are planned.

AT THE TENNIS CLUB the other night Admiral and Mrs. Ralph Wood, wintering here, were hosts at a dinner party which included many winter visitors and Villagers as guests.

Enjoying their hospitality were Dr. Dollard, U.S.N., Mrs. Dollard, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ransom, Beverly Ransom, and Capt. Jesse Goode, U.S.N., and Mrs. Goode.

HOSTS at the Deep Well Guest ranch last week were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett who entertained Village friends at a reception for their son, Peter, and his fiancée, Alys Faurot.

In the receiving line with her parents was Dee Dee Bennett, now studying art in Los Angeles.

THE POOL that comes into the living room was the center of attraction when Raymond Loewy, noted designer, entertained at his modern home at "Tierra Caliente" in Little Tuscany.

Many prominent businessmen of the Village and their wives were guests at the cocktail hour and marvelled at the home and its arrangements.

HERE FOR CHRISTMAS was Miss Nancy Jaynes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Jaynes, 260 Via Los Palmas. She arrived here by airplane from New York recently.

Miss Jaynes is a senior at Finch Junior college in New York. She expects to fly back east on January 4.

FROM CHICAGO and staying at the Caliente Cottages this week were Jay C. Roberts, Dr. C. Bernhardt to renew acquaintance with Herman Levine, owner-manager of the hostelry.

Also a recent arrival there was Mrs. George Shiller of Lewiston, Pa.

GUESTS of Jerry Nathanson, owner of Cherry's Market, are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keeshim and Mr. and Mrs. Preston Feinberg. Keeshim is the former owner of Sportsman Park race track and the Keeshim truck lines of Chicago. He is presently the owner of the Rockett Football team members of the All American League.

THE TENNIS CLUB was the scene of a large party given by Rudy Vallee, who had as his guests, Mr. and Mrs. Maury Friedman, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph D'Allesio, Henry Jameson, Joseph Parket and Don Cameron.

Ben Meyer, president of the Union Bank and Trust company, was seen about the town with a party of friends. At the Tennis Club and the dining room of the Colonial House on different occasions, he had as his guests, Mr. and Mrs. Wilber May, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Doubly, Will Ward and Ed Dillon.

Soaking up all the desert sun possible at the Lone Palm is Doris Fisher, of Beverly Hills; Mrs. Verna Gill and darling daughters, Kelly and Pam; George Jessel and Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Lustig of New York City.

Experiments by Italian chemists in the preservation of milk have revealed that the addition of a small quantity of hydrogen peroxide kills the bacteria that causes souring and is said to improve the flavor of the milk.

Judge Decides To Reduce Noise By Four-Fifths

C. H. (Doc) Waighop, well known Village photographer is in the sellers' market today. He's looking around for someone to buy four Doberman Pinscher puppies. He is also looking around for someone to eliminate coyotes—either he succeeds or he pays $50 in city court.

Doc went before Judge E. E. Theriault Friday on complaint of neighbors that his five Dobermans made too much noise at night. Doc told the judge that it was the coyotes—they yowled and all his puppies did was to yowl back.

BUT THE neighbors thought the nocturnal chorus was too much and signed the complaint.

Judge Theriault fined Waighop $50 but suspended sentence providing Doc got rid of four of his five pups. Probably on the theory that one-fifth of the noise might not be so objectionable. The judge was unable to recommend a market for the four pups so Doc agreed to see what he could do on his own.

(Note to Doc—call 2249, ask for Mrs. Donahue of the Classified department and your troubles will be over—Ed.)

Fun at Dingley

When they were all tired of blind-man's bluff, there was a great game at snap-dragon, and, when fingers enough were burned with that, and all the raisins gone, they sat down by the huge fire of blazing logs to a substantial supper and a mighty bowl of wassail, something smaller than an ordinary wash-house copper, in which the hot apples were hissing and bubbling with a rich look, and a jolly sound that were perfectly irresistible.

"This," said Mr. Pickwick, looking round him, "this is indeed comfort."
"Our invariable custom," said Mr. Wardle. "Everybody sits down with us on Christmas Eve, as you see them now—servants and all; and here we wait till the clock strikes twelve to usher Christmas in, and while away the time with forfeits and old stories. Trundle by, rake up the fire."

Up flew the bright sparks myriads as the logs were stirred, and the deep, red blaze sent forth a rich glow that penetrated into the farthest corner of the room and cast its cheerful tint on every face.

"Come," said Wardle, "a song—a Christmas song, give you one in default of a better."

"Bravo!" said Mr. Pickwick. "Fill up!" cried Wardle. "It will be two hours gone before you see the bottom of the bowl through the deep rich colour of the wassail; fill up all round, and now the song."—From Charles Dickens' "Pickwick Papers."

has been studying the subject and came up with the following don'ts.

He advises: go at the sun bathing gradually, as you would for some athletic event; those people who burn and nexer tan, should protect themselves from the direct rays of the sun. A good tan oil or lotion is conducive to an even tan and prevents burning and the cracking of the skin. The oil or sun tan should be used lavishly too, Davis said. However, caution in not over-doing the sun bathing despite the use of oil should be observed. Davis said he read in some magazines that didn't mention the trade name of the sun-tan which not only aids in preventing burns and gives an even tan but prevents annoyance from insects like mosquitos, flies. It repels these insects and others on the ground, yet is not harmful to the skin. It is non-sticky, non-greasy, and eliminates all mess and discomfort in application. He is going to write to the offices of the publication to find out the name of

Stars to Present Yuletide Program On KCMJ Tuesday

The Columbia Broadcasting System's traditional gift to their listeners is a glittering package of entertainment which will be unwrapped by KCMJ for the listeners in America's foremost desert resort area at 2 o'clock Christmas afternoon.

From 2 to 4 o'clock a dazzling array of the brightest stars in show business will perform in an unparalleled pageant of comedy and music. The constellated lineup includes Bob Hope, Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, Cass Daley, Victor Borge, Ginny Simms, Lou Bering and his Orchestra, the Benny Goodman sextette and many others. Don Ameche again acts as master of ceremonies and Ken Carpenter announces.

In every sense of the word, Two Hours of Stars shapes up as an all-star show, skillfully constructed with built-in entertainment power and a listeners' dream program come true on the day of days, over KCMJ Radio-Oasis.

Long Beach Girl Becomes Bride of Village Man Here

A romance which started in Palm Springs three years ago, culminated in a wedding last Friday when Mary Margaret Wilda Loof of Long Beach became the bride of Albert Carl Taucher of Palm Springs and Los Angeles. The vows were pledged at Our Lady of Solitude, Catholic church. Father Lalor of Long Beach officiated at the ceremonies, assisted by Father O'Conner of Palm Springs.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was in the Palm Room of the Desert Inn with 25 guests from Los Angeles and Long Beach present for the occasion.

THE BRIDE, who was lovely in a blue ensemble and carried butterfly orchids, was attended by Marilyn Neziou of Long Beach, who chose winter white for her costume and carried pink carnations. The best man was Bob Thompson.

The young couple met in Palm Springs when the bride groom was assisting his grandparents in the operation of their hotel, the Winter Garden.

After a honeymoon in Santa Barbara they will make their home in Palm Springs following completion of negotiations for the purchase of the Winter Garden hotel.

Men Only

Dorothy Gray Hostess
At Woman's Shop

It was a real re-write job, a switch, or a carrying-coals-to-Newcastle "deal" in a very nice way on Sunday afternoon, when Dorothy Gray had a cocktail party for the men . . . not the ladies.

Though her swank shop is the Village's smartest new addition to milady's shopping facilities, the store was filled with a large number of men, who alone were invited to have cocktails and hors-d'oeuvres as guests of Dorothy Gray. Of course, for atmosphere, there were a few women present, but primarily it was a men's affair. The boys had a grand time of it, too, and more than a few of their wives and sweethearts may be thankful for the party, for the men found that the many beautiful gifts all over the store lent themselves admirably to that gift selection, so needed. The men, when queried, stated that such affairs ought to be staged more often.

SPOTS

Before Your Eyes

BY BILL RASHALL

Merry Christmas to everybody. At this time of the year when Easterners have been talking about a "white Christmas like we used to have back home" it seems that nostalgic yearning could be easily satisfied and all within the space of four hours at most in a trip to the mountains, either to the north or west of us. Four hours would take one to the top of Idyllwild and back with all the yearning for snow gratified. All of this, mind you, without traveling back east where, as of Sunday, it was bitterly cold. Glorious California and its beautiful desert—lucky people are we.

NO CHRISTMAS decorations on our streets. Wonder if the city governments of Banning, Beaumont, Ontario, Riverside and Inglewood decorate the streets of their towns, or is it done by some civic organization? Anyway, the question aroused curiosity—and besides, some of the merchants have little trees in their windows here anyway. The Colonial House on Indian avenue lights that street up with gaily colored lights entwined about tall cypress trees.

Lights don't really make a Christmas. Christmas is in the heart, and it can be read in the eyes and bearing of every human being at this time of the year, from the little tot whose eyes are aglow as he searches each passing face for Santa Claus to the benign and understanding smile of the really old. What a beautiful bright world it is to live in at this time of the year!

AS YULETIDE keeps mounting from day to day in spirit toleration of one human being for another seems to mount, too, until the love and divinity of that MAN permeates and seeps into the soul. This certainly indicates, among other things, that good thoughts are contagious and travel unspoken between strangers as they do between blood relatives and close friends.

Spots about the town always suffer at this time of the year, the experts say. People have been out shopping, visiting half forgotten friends, stay at home wrapping packages and some perhaps calculate that going out is just out of the question in view of all the money Christmas cost. As for this writer, it appears he'll be eating hamburger until after the New Year.

TALKING ABOUT New Year's Eve. There is a mad scramble right now for tickets to the swanky spots in town. The Desert Inn will be sporting a special dance musical program that night as will the Palm House, Mr. Dee's and Pago Pago. The Colonial House, in addition to Ray Morton and his society dance or-

Christmas Party Great Success at Community Church

The Christmas party at the Community church last Tuesday was an outstanding event. Requests for reservations far exceeded the capacity of the church dining room. A brilliantly lighted tree and candle light only in the dining hall, and Christmas decorations provided the cheering atmosphere.

Mrs. William H. Davis and her efficient group of assistants served a generous turkey dinner, which was heartily enjoyed.

Around the tree, singing, recitations and apt skits made even Santa Claus rollick with mirth. Mrs. Harriet Henderson read the Christmas story.

The group singing was led by Holly Visal and Lois Lux. Musical numbers, both vocal and instrumental, added much to the occasion. W. H. Veith acted as Santa Claus.

These church dinners once a month have become an outstanding feature of the church year. The next one will be given on January 14.

chestra, is expected to have additional entertainment that night. The tickets to that affair are going, but fast.

Ruby at The Dunes is planning a special greeting for friends and patrons of that establishment both on Christmas and New Year's. The Lido is sporting the giant piano player, Gene Rodgers. It is said that when a band can play the overture to "The Peasant and the Poet", it can play music. You should hear Rodgers play it on the piano. If he does, and you're around, those ears will really receive a good treat. He is GOOD!

May Santa Claus be good to all of you.
